

PUERTO RICO'S QUEST FOR LIBERATION

DECOLONIZATION, HURRICANES, AND SOLIDARITY

Oscar López Rivera

Monday, February 5, 2018 | 6:00 p.m.

UCSB MultiCultural Center Theater

Reception and book signing to follow

Oscar López Rivera, Puerto Rican movement leader and former political prisoner, will discuss the history of colonialist relations and neoliberal austerity that has given rise to today's economic and environmental crises in Puerto Rico, including the devastation caused by Hurricane Maria. He will also address the long history of Puerto Rican anticolonial struggles.

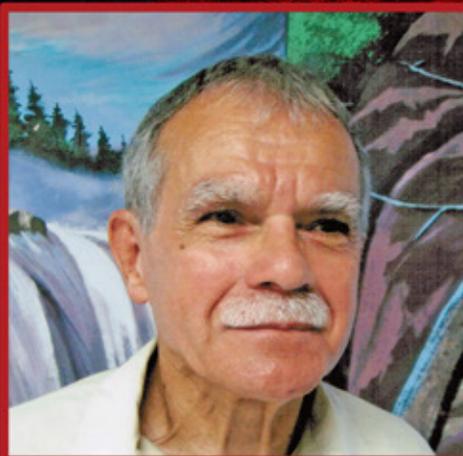

*UCSB launches Oscar López Rivera's week-long Southern California tour.
For more SoCal tour information, see www.puertoricansinaction.com.*

COMMUNITY DINNER

Sunday, February 4 | 6:00 p.m.

La Casa de la Raza

601 E. Montecito St. in Santa Barbara

López Rivera, a decorated Vietnam war veteran, artist, and author, exited prison in early 2017 after 35 years of incarceration. For decades, he has worked tirelessly for freedom and justice in Puerto Rico and the diaspora, and is considered the Nelson Mandela of Puerto Rico.

Questions? Contact Professor Diane Fujino, CBSR Director, at fujino@asamst.ucsb.edu or Rosa Pinter at rpinter@cbs.ucsb.edu or 805-893-3914

Flag image © xsoobhionxx, deviantart.com